Letter No: 1430/421 dated 2nd instant, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, submitting vernacular records Connected with the sale of the Jodi Nagireddi-halli village in the Sidlagatta Talik, and recommending the re-sumption of the same in consequence of the highest bid offered being much less than the arrears due to Govt.

Order.

The Vernacular records submitted with the above shew that 9 out of the 11 vrittis of the village in Question belong to one Rama-Subba bhatta and the the remaining 2 villages to Rs. 1800 per annum & permanently. He pointed out that Government had having been paid since the year 1840, the village was, after due notice to the defaulter, attached and sold.

The highest bid by one Subbaraya Chetty was for Rs. 300, whereas the amount of padi amount to Rs. 600-6-9. Rama Subba Bhatta, the owner the 9 villages, pointed this inability to pay up the whole amount due to Government, and, in offering to pay only the amount due on his own villages, he requested that the villages could may be divided and the amount due share thereof made over to him — This request is inadmissible vide Proceedings of Government No. 624-33/13 dated 24th April 1884. Thothadri Row, one of the other Vrittidars is reported to be dead. His widow as well as the remaining Vrittidar, Naranachar, failed to comply with the notices which were duly served on them. As Subrajyappa's bid is nearly 50 per cent less than the amount of the arrear due, it cannot be accepted; and as the Vrittidars are unwilling to pay up the entire demand, there is no other alternative than to resume the village as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner.

Letter No. 1430—421, dated 2nd instant, from the Dep Commissioner, Kolar District, submitting Vernacular records connected with the sale of the Nagireddihalli village in the Sidlaghatta Taluk, and recommending the resumption of theme in consequence of the highest bid offered being much less than the arrears due to Govern.

No. 5679-81—205, DATED 23RD DECEMBER 1887.

ORDER.—The Vernacular records submitted with the above show that 9 out of the 11 vrittis of the village in question belong to Ramasubbabhatta and the remaining 2 vrittis to the Thothadri Rao and Nanachari. The jodi due to Government not having been paid since the year Dlu, the village was, after due notice to the defaulters, attached and sold. The high bid by one Subbarayappa was for Rs. 300, whereas the arrears of jodi amo to Rs. 600—6—9. Ramasubbabhatta, who owns the 9 vrittis, pleaded his bility to pay up the whole amount due to Government and, in offering to pay or the arrears due on his own vrittis, he requested that the village lands may be dled and his own share thereof made over to him. This request is inadmissible, e Proceedings of Government No. 624-33—13, dated 24th April 1884. ThothadRao, one of the other vrittidars is reported to be dead. His widow as we as the remaining vrittidar Naranachar failed to comply with the notices which re duly served on them. As Subbarayappa's bid is nearly 50 per cent less than amount of the arrear due, it cannot be accepted; and as the vrittidars are unling to pay up the entire demand, there is no other alternative than to resum e village as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner. The Offg. Dewan accorly sanctions the resumption of the village by Government and the remission of ars due thereon. A detailed survey of the village should be made and the lands in out for cultivation on full assessment.
